

| HVAC: Verify the intake & return vents are not blocked by any infrastructure. i.e racks, Cables & fiber trough                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                       |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Prompt 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Prompt 2                                                                                                                                                      | Prompt 3                                                                                                                                              |
| Verify externally that HVAC intake/exhaust vents are visible and not obstructed by external infrastructure, cabling, or environmental debris.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Verify internally that HVAC intake and return vents are clear from racks, cable trays, fiber troughs, or any installed equipment that could restrict airflow. | Take clear internal photos showing the vents and surrounding area to confirm there are no obstructions from cables, fiber troughs, or infrastructure. |
| Photo 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Photo 2                                                                                                                                                       | Photo 3                                                                                                                                               |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                              |                                                                    |
| Do's Must maintain 30 - 36 inches of clearance from HVAC supply and return vents. Ensure both internal and external HVAC vents are visible and unobstructed. Maintain adequate clearance around intake and return vents, as per Manufacturer's Standards. Capture clear photos showing the full vent and surrounding clearance.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                       |
| Don'ts Do not install HVAC units too close together, preventing access to side vents or maintenance panels, as per Manufacturers Standards Do not place equipment, materials, or storage items near vents. Do not ignore blocked airflow conditions as they can affect equipment cooling.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                       |
| HVAC System Controller Remote Communication: Verify the device(s) is IP enabled and remotely accessible from an IP address                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                       |
| Prompt 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                       |
| Screenshot Connected to Network Screenshot of Valid assinged IP address                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                       |
| Photo 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                       |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                       |
| Do's Ensure the device is connected to the network and accessible via the interface. Capture a clear screenshot showing the assigned IP address. Verify the IP address is valid and matches the expected network range. Ensure the screenshot includes date/time, under required menu. Confirm the system status is active/online, and the unit is alarm free as per the Alarm Relay Status shown above. Ensure the IP address is fully visible and readable in the screenshot, enhance larger to make visible as shown above. Capture the entire screen or relevant section (not cropped too tightly). |                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                       |
| Don'ts Do not use blurred, low-quality, or incomplete screenshots. Do not capture unrelated screens that do not show network/IP details. Do not edit or alter the screenshot content.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                       |